Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market shrugged off signs of a deepening recession and embarked on another substantial gain in continued active trading today.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up 6.34 at 733.26. Gainers outpaced losers by a 3-2 margin on the New York Stock Exchange.

The market hesitated at the opening in the wake of the government's report late Thursday that industrial production took its sharpest monthly drop in January since the Depression. But falling interest rates and news of a decline in wholesale prices last month had it on an upward course again by midmorning.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index was up .35 at 76.73.

The favorable news came in two doses. First the government reported that wholesale prices had declined at a seasonally adjusted 0.3 per cent rate last month for their second drop in a row.

And New York's First National City Bank and the First National Bank of Chicago trimmed their prime lending rates—the basic charge on corporate loans—from 9 to 8 1/2 per cent.

The NYSE's composite index of all its listed common stocks rose .32 to 43.32.

Roundtown Players Have Hit With 'The Miracle Worker'

Persons who attended the opening night performance of the Roundtown Players latest production, "The Miracle Worker," were treated to an excellent performance of the William Gibson play that traces the life of Helen Keller and her teacher, Annie Sullivan.

It will be presented at Memorial Hall tonight and Saturday, with a special matinee for students also planned for Saturday.

The drama, set in the 1880s, was an excellent blend of visual and audio effects and fine acting.

Martha McKay as Helen Keller, Annie Artrupp as Annie Sullivan, and Ed Herel as Capt. Keller were especially impressive.

Miss McKay, a fifth grade student at Washington Twp. School, portrayed the deaf and blind Helen Keller with a coolness and poise she related to the audience.

Miss Artrupp, a seventh grade teacher in the Chillicothe School system, carried much of the action in displaying her patience as Helen's teacher.

And Herel, who usually works behind the scenes for the players, brought across the gruff character of Helen's father.

Other actors in the play are Gladden Troutman, Diane Berger, Susan Moore, Jon Blum, Edith Grigg, Gary Vermilion, Mike Alkire, Marsha Davis, Peggy Lee, and blind girls played by Melanie Griffith, Kathy Fischer, Reta Gulick, Karla Hoffman, Patricia Irene Johnson, Julie McCain, Tamra Rase, Tonya Rase, Carla Russell, Sally Vanhoose, Diane Wilamowski, Kim Wolfe, and Beth Hovermale.

Offstage voices were Susan Moore, Peggy Lee, B. J. Sowers, Diane Wilamowski, Leroy Davis, Angelo Dragonette, and Matthew Blum. Belle was played by Nurf The Wonder Dog.

Special affects of the production, including the set and scenery, were also very important in portraying the story.

Ed Herel was in charge of construction of the set and incorporating the technical aspects of the play. He was assisted by Mike Alkire, Janice Perdion, Pat Stonerock, Carolyn Herel, Dennis Penderson, Jim Parthemore, Charles Enfinger, Herb Sprenger, and Nelson Embry.

The scenery was designed by B. J. Sowers and Pat and Jeff Stonerock.

Diane Berger headed the costume committee composed of Sue Thompson, Peggy Ross, Peggy Lee, Dee Currie, Nancy McKay, Mary Ann Raterman, Helen Blum, Marilyn Johnson, Ann Hoffman, and Marilyn Sprenger.

Conservatives Eye New Political Party

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some conservatives, discontented with what they say are the liberal policies of the Ford-Rockefeller administration, are gearing up for a new national political party.

The talk of a new political party and criticism of both Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller and President Ford dominated a conference Thursday sponsored by the Young Americans for Freedom (YAF) and the American Conservative Union (ACU).

YAF claims to have a membership of 55,000 nationally. The ACU is based in Washington and lobbies on major legislation.

The four-day conference, attended by 500 persons, is entitled "1976 — What Direction for Conservatives?" and is focusing on what some conservatives consider to be the President's "leftward drift" as indicated by his support for détente and conditional amnesty for Vietnam-era draft evaders and deserters.

Rep. Robert E. Bauman, R-Md., opening the conference, received a cheering, standing ovation when he called upon Ford to "make perfectly clear that Mr. Rockefeller will not control our domestic policies and is not acceptable for nomination as vice president in 1976."

Later in the day, Ford announced that he was putting Rockefeller in charge of the Domestic Council so that the vice president will play an important role in the administration.

Another conservative leader, who asked not to be identified, said there is fear that if Ford doesn't seek reelection, Rockefeller may be the party's nominee for the White House in 1976.

Ford has said publicly he plans to run again.

ACU Chairman M. Stanton Evans said there should be a "new party" with former California Gov. Ronald Reagan at the top of the ticket and Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace as the vice presidential nominee.

"The two major parties have become indistinguishable," Evans said on WETA-TV's "Evening Edition." Evans said he was "disenchanted" with the Ford-Rockefeller administration.

Reagan has indicated he does not want to become involved in a new party.

Sen. Jesse Helms, R-S.C., who opposed Rockefeller's vice presidential confirmation, is in the forefront of the movement to head off Rockefeller's political rise in the GOP.

"We will not convince them (the American people) that our conservative party, by whatever name, is not the party of the rich by putting up candidates whose very names are associated with unsavory privilege, monopoly, and manipulation of wealth," Helms said in a speech prepared for delivery today.

Reagan is scheduled to address the conference Saturday night, but no major announcement is anticipated.

Civil Suit Settled By Jury, Judge

Judge William Ammer dismissed Yates Motor Company and Arrabelle Lane as party defendants in a civil lawsuit by directed verdict. The case had been filed by Thomas A. Wagner and his parents, Thomas M. and Laquita P. Wagner against these two defendants along with Robert Graf.

The Judge cited his reason for the directed verdicts. He said Graf was an independent contractor and not an agent of either of the other two defendants.

The suit which was originally for a total of $55,000 alleged injuries and losses as a result of an accident on April 3, 1971 at the intersection of East Corwin and South Washington Streets.

Wagner was driving a car owned by Phillip Daley and Graf was driving the other car. Graf had allegedly failed to stop at the intersection.

After the court had made his dismissal of the two defendants, the plaintiffs, represented by Roy Huffer, proceeded with the case against Graf.

The case went to the jury and verdicts were returned in favor of the younger Wagner in the amount of $6,500 for personal injuries and in favor of his parents in the amount of $400 for loss of services.

The judge granted judgment of $750 to Daley for the loss of his car.

Jurors were Charles A. Moss, William L. Robbins, Cecil Warren Lutz, Maynard M. Marion, Sharon R. Roese, Ronald L. Hawks, Wayne Lee Bower and Thomas E. Spiller. Nancy S. Ranck sat in on the trial as an alternate juror.

Harsha Returns Campaign Contributions

Congressman William H. Harsha today announced that he was returning approximately $7,600 to individuals who had contributed to his campaign for 1974.

The Sixth District Congressman said that contributions totaling $18,512.29 were turned in to his campaign committee. In its successful effort to re-elect the Congressman, the committee spent only $10,912.84. Harsha said, "the balance of $7,599.45 is being returned to some 132 individual contributors."

"I wish to express my sincerest gratitude to all who contributed to my campaign and assure them that every cent was either spent in that endeavor or will be returned to the individual contributors on a pro rata basis. My reelection campaign accounts are open and public. I believe this to be the most honest method of dealing with the voters of the Sixth District who have seen fit to continue to allow me to serve them in the Congress of the United States," Harsha concluded.

107,000 Dairy Cows Discovered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Statisticians in the Agriculture Department have found 107,000 dairy cows on the nation's farms that they did not know existed until new cattle inventory figures were gathered on Jan. 1.

The discovery prompted the USDA to begin revising its forecasts on milk production prospects in 1975. In other words, farmers may be producing substantially more milk for the consumer market this year than the experts had previously counted on.

A revised estimate of 1975 dairy production is to be released Feb. 21 by the department's Outlook and Situation Board. As recently as late December, USDA experts were predicting that 1975 milk output would continue to decline through mid-year.

The existence of the additional 107,000 dairy cows came to light after the department's Statistical Reporting Service issued a report Wednesday which showed that the number of milk cows on farms in December totaled 11,212,000 head.

On Jan. 10, the agency estimated the December milk cow inventory at 11,105,000 head. But that was before the annual Jan. 1 inventory of all cattle — including beef and dairy breeds — was prepared for public release. It was announced Feb. 3.

The revisions have produced a ripple effect in other dairy statistics kept by the department. For example, 1974 milk output — which had been predicted to be down from 1973 — actually was larger than the previous year.

Production, the report said, was more than 115.4 billion pounds last year, up slightly from 115.38 billion in 1973. And the 1973 total was revised downward from 115.6 billion pounds previously indicated.

Averaged out for the entire year,

Dividend Declared

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A quarterly dividend of 43 cents a share, an increase of three cents, was declared Thursday by Owens Illinois Inc., payable March 15 to shareholders of record Feb. 21. The board also declared a $1 dividend on preferred stock, payable April 1 to shareholders of record Feb. 28.

officials said there were 11,221,000 dairy cows on the nation's farms in 1974, a decline of 1.6 per cent from the 1973 average of 11,409,000 in 1973.

One official in the Statistical Reporting Service said Thursday the discrepancy in December was partly due to USDA's monthly survey system which involves small-scale samplings taken by mail. The Jan. 1 all-cattle inventory uses scientific and carefully designed methods which are too costly under current budget limitations to use on a monthly basis, said the official, who asked not to be identified.

The report also said milk production in January was up slightly from the same month last year and gained 2.4 per cent from December.

At USDA's annual outlook conference in December, experts said 1975 milk output probably would trail year-earlier levels during the first half of the year.

One big reason for the larger bulge in dairy cow numbers is that prices for those animals have been low for most of the past year. Thus, despite relatively high feed expenses, many dairy farmers have kept producing milk rather than sacrifice cows at depressed prices.

We honestly believe we have the lowest prescription prices in town. We invite you to compare our prices. Bring your next prescription in for pricing at no obligation.

Egg Slump

When the housewife buys a package of eggs at the grocer's these days, what she gets isn't necessarily what the hen produced. There is nothing surreptitious about it, only innovative attempts by the egg industry to bolster sagging consumption.

Per capita consumption of eggs in the United States is on the decline, from 334 in 1960, to 287 in 1974. The reasons are varied, but the popularity of convenience foods and changing eating habits contribute to diminished egg consumption.

Foods which require special handling in the kitchen face tougher competition from pre-prepared foods which need only to be heated and served. The egg can be prepared in infinite varieties, some of which are adaptable to convenience packaging.

Lowered demand has depressed the egg industry and turned some producers into other fields. This has had the effect of raising egg prices, as production also declines. Also affecting egg consumption is the more sedentary life and quick lifestyle prevalent today.

Fewer persons have either the need or the time for the hearty breakfasts once popular on the American table. The egg was a staple of those meals.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Friday, Feb. 14, the 45th day of 1975. There are 320 days left in the year. This is Valentine's Day.

Today's highlight in history:

In 1663, Canada became a royal province of France.

On this date—

In 1859, Oregon was admitted into the Union as the 33rd state.

In 1893, Hawaii was annexed by treaty to the United States.

In 1903, a Federal Department of Commerce and Labor was created.

In 1912, Arizona became the 48th state.

In 1929, seven hoodlums who were rivals of the Al Capone gang in Chicago were murdered in a garage. The killings became known as the St. Valentine's Day Massacre.

In 1971, Britain switched to a decimal currency after 1,200 years of dealings based on 12-penny shillings.

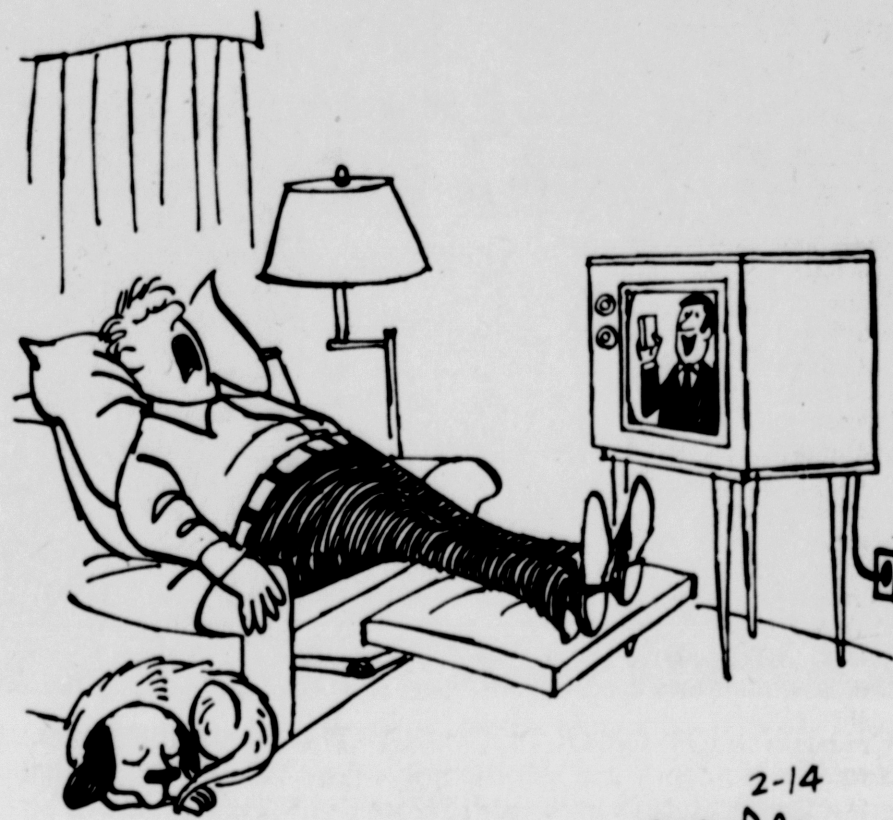

Ten years ago: The Black nationalist leader, Malcolm X, and his family escaped injury when a firebomb wrecked their New York City home.

Five years ago: President Richard M. Nixon announced that the United States was banning production and use of toxins for warfare.

One year ago: Clifford Irving was paroled from a New York prison after serving 16 months of a sentence for producing a fake autobiography of Howard Hughes.

Today's birthdays: Former Teamsters Union president James Hoffa is 62. Woman golfer Mickey Wright is 40.

Thought for today: Every noble work is at first impossible — Thomas Carlyle, Scottish essayist and historian, 1795-1881.

"Do you have trouble sleeping?"

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Do you think it will ever be possible to replace insulin injections for severe diabetics?

Mr. T.O'L., Mich.

Dear Mr. O'L.:

More and more evidence is coming out about the jigsaw puzzle of diabetes. New attitudes in the use of insulin and diet and in drugs taken by mouth have been effective in the long-term treatment of diabetes. They have reduced the need for injections of insulin in some instances.

At Stanford University in California, at Dartmouth University in New Hampshire, and at the Salk Institute in La Jolla, Calif., new attacks are being made on the problem of diabetes.

A new hormone discovered in experimental animals is said to reduce sugar levels in the blood.

With this research and the possibility of pancreas transplants, there seems to be great hope for new approaches to the complex problems of diabetes.

"Lend me your lipstick" is a phrase I hear over and over again. My high school students refuse to accept the fact that this is a dangerous procedure. Mrs. G.M., Ken.

Dear Mrs. M.:

Sharing lipsticks, powder puffs and mascara can be a health hazard. In fact, very recently, an outbreak of severe eye infections in a school was traced to a single infected mascara brush.

The staphylococcus germ, so commonly found on the skin of young people with acne, can be passed from one person to the other by contaminated lipsticks.

Both lenders and borrowers are subjecting themselves to the possibility of infection by trading these personal articles.

One Plus One

By JIM BISHOP

Marriage, to my way of thinking, is a risky business. It is akin, in a far-fetched way, to a new automobile: it glitters, it purrs. After a suitable break-in period, the buyer finds that he has a peach or a lemon.

Inside and outside my family, I have seen a great deal of rice and alimony. There have been many divorces, separations, marriages held together by children rather than love, and a few reasonably happy unions.

I would say that there are more failures than successes. The primary cause is that too many persons mature after the ceremony. What they thought was a combination of dewy roses and poetry turned out to be a blizzard of subpoenas.

This, by rote, leads to the eternal riddle: What is true love? Love is a deep and permanent affection for one person. It can endure disagreements, jealousy, the icy breeze of gossip, illness, even infidelity. It is an insatiable desire to give rather than to receive.

In all the world, it is the emotion most easily hurt, most difficult to kill. If one can assume that the foregoing is not the product of a feeble mind, then why do so many marriages break in a surf of accusations?

Of every four marriages, two die early, one is endured by common agreement, and the fourth is reasonably content. Our best comedies and our tortured tragedies concern love. Judges whose home life would not bear scanning sit in judgment on couples "trying to reach a settlement."

Few events in life pain me more than observing the ecstasy of a young girl flashing her engagement ring, her shower gifts, almost swooning as the great day approaches. The boy, let it be admitted, is tall and muscular. He may be going to school with no notion of what career he has in mind; or he may have a job where the pay is good but the future is dim.

She thinks she is giving herself to a virile man who is prepared to lay his life down for her. He thinks he is buying the most desirable piece of property in the town. Both are wrong.

Continued growth after marriage is what leads to estrangement. The more she grows, the easier it becomes to see him as a superficial portrait of boyishness. If it is he who grows, he sees his bride as drab and colorless, a child more interested in putting on a fresh face at 5 p.m. than in cooking dinner.

Some years ago, when I made speeches at colleges, I made it a point to ask seniors what they planned to do with their lives. Seven out of 10 did not know. Daddy paid the tuition; daddy bought them a set of wheels; daddy gave them beer money for Saturday night dates; and every boy kept a scorecard.

The time will come — it must — when prospective brides and bridegrooms will be given a psychological test to determine whether they understand love, loyalty and responsibility. Later, a second test will be offered. This will determine which couples are fit to have children, and which ones should be sterilized.

It sounds harsh, but it isn't. Both tests will determine whether young couples can survive the tests of marriage. Love is a lot more than animal magnetism. The physical side of love, let it be said, is most important. But, like the engine in a new car, it is not the whole automobile.

Some of our young are so witless that they hurry toward marriage as though it were an escape hatch from their parents. Others think of it as a perpetual honeymoon. Insecure girls often marry because they fear that no one else will propose. "He's better than nothing." Sadly, she will find out that he isn't.

Love is free. Marriage isn't. A young person can afford to fall in love many times without being mortally hurt. But when that slim metal band is slipped onto her ring finger, a world of responsibility falls on the shoulders of two people. In truth, they are no longer two — they are one. After that, if she cuts her hand, his should hurt.

If it is true love, it will thrive on adversity. The more it is assailed, the stronger it grows. It becomes indomitable, indestructible. They may argue at the top of their lungs, but they stand as one against the world.

The true sorrow, the only one which cannot be avoided in a good marriage, is the thought that someday, far off, one will slip into the deep and serene sleep, leaving the other to weep. . .

GI Benefits End Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP) — White House officials are proposing an elimination of GI education benefits for future veterans and are asking the Pentagon what impact this would have on enlistments and military education.

Odell W. Vaughn, deputy administrator of the Veterans Administration, said Wednesday the White House proposal was made in connection with a VA request that President Ford declare an end to the Vietnam wartime period.

A presidential declaration would immediately cut off such benefits as pensions and burial allowances, for which only wartime veterans are eligible. Limiting education benefits for peacetime veterans would be similar to action taken after World War II and the Korean War. However, when the Vietnam-era GI education bill was enacted it was made retroactive to provide benefits for those peacetime veterans who served between Korea and Vietnam.

Any cutoff of education benefits would not affect anyone now eligible, veterans or those on active duty. It would affect only people joining the military after the cutoff date.

Early Interest In Banks

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — During the other Depression, Ogden Nash wrote in the New York AMERICAN, "Bankers are just like anybody else, except richer."

It remains one of the few mellow reflections on banks in general and bankers in particular. Another defender was Daniel Webster. He once cried out in the U.S. Senate, "There are persons who constantly clamor . . . They cry out loudly against all banks and corporations . . . They would make the fountain of industry and dry up all streams."

And, of course, you heard a long time ago about the banker with a kindly-looking eye: the glass one.

But there's something new in the world of American banking and I don't mean the free electric toasters or the influx of Arab petrodollars. The new thing is epitomized by James M. Browne, president and chief executive officer of one of the country's leading consumer finance institutions, FinanceAmerica. (cq) It is a subsidiary of another glued-together colossus, BankAmerica (cq) Corp., San Francisco. Their combined assets are an unenvying $50 billion (plus).

Young (43) Browne, product of Notre Dame, Fordham Law and New York University School of Business Administration, believes that school children should be given lessons in banking, borrowing, spending and saving, so that they won't grow up — as countless generations have — convinced that they don't have a friend at Chase Manhattan or even a nodding acquaintance at the 15th National Bank of Hagerstown, Md.

Teach the rotten little squanderers a lesson in fiscal responsibility right along with their ABC's, Browne advocates. He has seven children, so he enters into this hair-raising arena with excellent credentials.

Browne also has an encouraging word about women as credit risks. Though they hold the purse-strings (somehow, my wife has never chosen to divulge where she holds ours) of an estimated 75 per cent of the everyday use of domestic money, women have been bad-mouthed as economically brainless for centuries. Especially in the banking industry, apparently. Last time I looked, beautiful Mary Roebing of Trenton, N.J., Palm Beach, etc., was the only lady bank president in the land. This was about the same time a bank was about to open in New York with a sign reading "Ladies" on its steely front door, clearly warning male chauvinist pigs to take their filthy lucre and loan requests elsewhere.

Browne is out to do something against the Old Husbands Tale about the financial irresponsibility of the American female.

"A growing awareness of women's changing social status and of the problems which they are encountering in achieving this status, has caused the finance industry to re-evaluate its definition of 'credit-worthiness,'" Browne states, obviously browned off.

"Forty-three per cent of all women in the United States are now employed. Some 44 per cent of all mothers with children under the age of six are working. That in itself disproves the old myth that women are bad credit risks because they cannot be expected

Dear Editor:

We are hearing a lot today about alcoholism. The distilleries would have us to believe that alcoholism is a disease. I would like to take this opportunity to express my views as to whether I believe it is a disease or a habit.

If alcoholism is a disease, then it is the only disease that is bottled and sold.

And it is the only disease that is contacted by the will of man. It is the only disease that requires a license to propagate. It is the only disease that requires outlets to spread it.

If alcoholism is a disease, then it is the only disease that produces revenue for the government and it is the only disease that provokes crime. It is the only disease that is habit forming. It is the only disease that brings violent death on the highways. It is the only disease that is spread by advertising and it is the only disease without a germ or virus cause.

It just might be that its not a disease at all.

A sure cure for alcoholism is Jesus Christ.

Once again our church members were privileged to prepare the meal for the recent Jaycee DSA Banquet.

We were very ably assisted by the Circleville High School SOS girls. It was a pleasure to work with such polite, efficient teenagers. Without their help it would be impossible for us to undertake this project.

We want to thank all who helped in any way. It was greatly appreciated.

To the Jaycees, thank you for allowing us to be a part of this worthwhile community project.

to remain in the job market after they marry.

"Today, anyone who applies for a loan, regardless of sex, needs to be prepared to meet two basic standards of evaluation: a steady income and a satisfactory credit history. If they meet these basic criteria, have an acceptable character, and all other conditions are favorable, then there's really no reason why he or she should be denied credit."

Browne's advice to the girls: "Open checking and savings accounts. Obtain credit cards in your own name. A married woman should use her own first name to build a credit history for herself."

This last word from Browne, whose headquarters in Allentown, Pa., operates branches all over the U.S. and Canada:

"We and others who think the same way make loan decisions which are based on the entire credit-worthiness of an individual, not on race, creed, marital status or sex. And the more we learn about women as credit customers, the more we are forced to discard the old myth that they generally are bum credit risks."

Suits me. Times being what they are, I'll take the old lady along as my co-maker when I invade Clancy's next Saturday night.

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — President Ford's order releasing as much as $2 billion in highway funds is open to criticism that it is an expedient rather than a plan, and contradictory one at that.

But this is an economy of contradictions.

While urging the nation to cut back on its consumption of energy, Ford is in effect seeing to it that the use of energy is encouraged by building the roads over which the energyburners operate.

Most people can list a halfdozen socially desirable projects, beginning with mass transit projects that actually would save energy, that could benefit from a similar infusion of funds.

But while oil and other commodities might be in short supply, criticism isn't. Leadership throughout the world is faced today with such a complex of circumstances that nothing seems to satisfy, or even seem logical.

Perhaps the most baffling conflict is the concurrent rise in nationalism and the growing interdependence of nations.

The Arabs, for example, can sell all the oil they can drain from the sands but it won't do them much good if Western industrial nations don't buy it, because then the Arabs couldn't buy Western technology.

Another head-on conflict exists between the rise in consumer expectations throughout the world and the need for energy to turn those expectations into reality. And that reality, in turn, often conflicts with the environment.

There is no end to the list. Even the battle against inflation poses the threat of more recession, and vice versa. The strange times lead to a federal budget deficit in the scores of billions being called conservative.

The entire economic climate is in such a state of change that philosophical ideals clash with what is practiced.

Big business fights for its independence from Washington and then, when in trouble, seeks special treatment there. Government regulatory agencies set up to promote fairness and efficiency are accused of being unjust and wasteful.

The climate being what it is, the President's highway building plan doesn't seem out of place. The entire picture must be kept in mind, and not the individual pieces that make up the picture.

But in an economic world in turmoil, that bigger picture is more and more perplexing.

On Books And Activities At The Library

The old adage "There's nothing new under the sun" does not apply to the Pickaway County District Public Library. New material is constantly being added to the shelves.

In a continuing effort to keep the reference section up-dated with the latest information, the 1975 edition of the Encyclopedia Americana is the newest acquisition. New articles and revised articles are now housed in an attractive light blue cover. The color illustrations show the results of new techniques in modern photography. Whether you're searching out an answer to a specific question or merely browsing for your own enlightenment, you're bound to enjoy using this new edition.

Kidnapping and murder seem to be the choices offered to lovers of a good mystery story. Dell Shannon has written another Luis Mendoza mystery. This one is "Deuces Wild". Lt. Mendoza tackles a young girl's death and a minister's murder but most of all, he is faced with the kidnapping of his own twins. Shannon has done a good job of filling this one with cliff-hanging suspense.

Robert Fish brings back his Capt. Jose Da Silva of the Brazilian Federal Police Force in "Trouble In Paradise". He's in pursuit of a death squad operating in a border town. Setting himself up as a target gives the Captain and the reader a few thrills.

If stories about psychotic murderers serve to give you goose-bumps on a cold night, try "Help, Please" by Edith-Jane Bahr. It has all the ingredients for a chilling suspense story.

Church hardly seems the setting for murder but Barbara Byfield and Frank Tedeschi have penned a new Crime Club Selection around church, the clergy, and a bold lady photographer. "Solemn High Murder" is a modern mystery with a fast pace.

Readers of Avalon light romances will find four new titles to read: "End Of The Rainbow" by Finley; "A New Life For Nurse Paula" by Lauria; "New Love For Old" by Sears; "Dark Mountain" by Boyle.

"Showdown At Emerald Canyon" by Clinton and "Topanga's Woman" by Helm are new Double D Westerns. "Mission River Justice" by Tuttle is an Avalon mystery.

Taylor Caldwell with Jess Stearn wrote "The Romance of Atlantis". The interesting fact is that she wrote it more than fifty years ago at the age of twelve. Because of the accuracy of descriptions applicable to today's world, one cannot help but be impressed by the perception of the author at the time the book was written.

Salustra, the glamorous queen of Atlantis provides the romantic interest. While the story line is interesting, it is still the society of Atlantis that makes it a fascinating novel.

"Cold River" by William Judson is a novel with all the characteristics of a real adventure. Set in the Adirondack Mountains in 1921, it's the story of a dying father's attempt to prepare his two children to survive the disaster confronting them. If you like a gripping story, you'll find this one entertaining.

Miranda Seymour's first book is an historical romance set in Italy during the dramatic Fifteenth Century. The story brings to life the pagantry and personalities of the High Renaissance.

"The Pleasure Bond" is the first book by Masters and Johnson directed to the general public. It discusses the social and psychological bases of physical pleasure.

"Interior Decoration A To Z" by Betty Pepis can surely brighten a dull Winter's day. It can give you all sorts of ideas for refurbishing your home along with some basic guidelines.

February is the month of Presidents and a good time to do some Bicentennial reading. Be sure to browse our red, white and blue section next time you visit the library. Know your America in time to help celebrate 1976!

Answers For Veterans

EDITOR'S NOTE: Each week The Herald will publish a series of Questions and Answers of interest to veterans. These questions and answers are some of the many presented to James P. Shea, Pickaway County Veterans Service Officer. Any veteran desiring further information concerning his Veterans Administration Benefits should contact the Veterans Service Officer in the basement of the Pickaway County Court House.

(Q.) Some told me that I can apply for a home guarantee loan under the GI Bill even though I served during World War II. Is this true?

(A.) Expiration dates on GI loan eligibility were removed in 1970. Also, the eligibility of World War II and Korean veterans was restored where their entitlement had expired. Eligibility for GI loans now runs until you have used it.

(Q.) About two years ago, I received VA outpatient treatment for an injury sustained in service and verified by VA. Can I receive treatment again from VA?

(A.) Yes, if you have established this service-connection with VA. Suggest you apply for treatment again.

(Q.) Do Social Security benefits reduce a veteran's compensation from VA?

(A.) No. VA does not count any income against compensation for service connected disabilities, including Social Security payments. Income is a factor for pensions for non-service connected disabilities, however.

(Q.) May a veteran pay off a GI loan before date final payment is due?

(A.) Yes. A VA guaranteed loan may be partially or fully paid at any time ahead of schedule. However, part payments may not be less than one monthly payment or $100, whichever is less.

(Q.) How long do I have to convert my National Service Life Insurance policy?

(A.) NSLI five year term insurance can be converted at any time while in force. Term policies with numbers prefixed by "W" cannot be kept in force if they expire after the insured's 50th birthday, and they must be converted before they expire.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

As far as weather was concerned, it was a rather quiet night in Ohio. Only a few light snow flurries fell on northeastern Ohio, although cold air continued to flow into the state, according to the National Weather Service.

A high pressure ridge on a Wisconsin-southwest-Ohio line helped to keep the remainder of the state dry.

Some sunshine was to occur early today, but as the ridge line moved eastward, clouds again were to thicken.

Some snow should reach southwestern Ohio late tonight and then cover all of the state on Saturday. But the snow will change to rain in southern and central sections of the state.

The snow and rain will be the result of a low developing well to the southwest of Ohio and moving by Saturday morning to western Kentucky.

At 6 a.m., temperatures ranged from seven degrees at Mansfield to 24 at Cincinnati and near Chesapeake.

High temperatures today were to be 25 to 30 degrees in northern Ohio and 32 to 37 degrees in the south.

Lows tonight will be 18 to 25 in the north and 24 to 30 degrees in the south. On Saturday readings will peak in the 30s in the state, but possibly in the 40s in southern Ohio.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Nurse Wheels Dad Away

DEAR ABBY: Our whole family is in a turmoil because, after 52 years of marriage, our father has left our mother. They used to have their fights over the years but we never thought it would come to this.

Dad left Mother to go and live with a 53-year-old nurse he met three years ago when he was in the hospital. (Dad has been in a wheelchair for three years.) The nurse came right into the house, packed Dad up and moved him out, and they drove off together.

Now that this has come out, everybody is saying they knew about Dad and this nurse all along. Dad is 74, and Mother is 73. Mother is so humiliated, she hasn't been out of the house since Dad left.

What do you think of this mess? How can we get Dad to come to his senses and go back to Mother? It's the talk of the town.

DISGRACED
DEAR DISGRACED: Stay out of it. And you needn't feel "disgraced." A person can disgrace only himself.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 35-year-old widow, not unattractive. A middle-aged physician (divorced) invited me to dinner at his home.

When I arrived, he fixed a cocktail, then the phone rang. I could tell by his conversation it was a woman. And she wasn't a patient. I sat quietly sipping my drink while he talked for 30 minutes! When he finally returned, he resumed the conversation with me, making no apologies for leaving me alone for so long.

About ten minutes later a car drove up in front of his house and stopped. He said, "Let me see who that is." Then he went outside.

When he didn't return in 20 minutes, I took my wrap and purse and went outside to tell my host I was leaving. He was standing by the car, talking to a lady who apparently had come to see him.

I said: "Good night, I am going home." The lady immediately drove off. My host insisted that I go back into the house. I did, but only because I wanted to tell him off for his rudeness to me. Before I had a chance to say anything, he told ME off for having Circleville High Committee Meets For Prom Plans

Parents of the Circleville Junior Class officers met recently to formulate plans for the After Prom Party. Last years committee members were present to give reports and offer suggestions.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert McCoy are this years chairmen. Mrs. McCoy introduced the class officers: president, Mike McCoy; vice president, Lisa Leahy; secretary, Julie Sberna; treasurer, Barb Brackett; prom chairman, Leslie Ried; projects, Linda Davies and Nancy Radcliff. Not present were Jorge Cook and Joni Foster.

Letters will be mailed to parents of all junior and senior members, soliciting help with this project.

The next meeting will be held at the High School Cafeteria 7 p.m., Feb. 18th.

All junior class parents and other interested persons are welcome to attend.

"embarrassed" him by coming out-side.

Was I wrong? How would you have handled it?

MISTREATED
DEAR MISTREATED: You were not wrong. I would have handled it much the same as you. Only I'd have said my goodbyes immediately after my host returned from his 30-minute phone conversation.

DEAR ABBY: I never miss your column. It's a kick to read about some of the stupid problems some of those fools who write to you come up with. I'm amazed at the number of women who write to say they're afraid of losing their husbands to another woman.

That's the last thing I'm worried about. I say: "The woman who steals my husband steals my troubles."

NOT WORRIED
DEAR NOT: If that's the way you feel about your husband, why don't you just turn him loose, so there will be one less potential thief in the world?

DEAR ABBY: About the woman who always mentions the fact that one of her three children was adopted: One shouldn't be so quick to criticize her. Perhaps she wants to publicly announce the fact that, although she is the mother of three children, she brought only two into the world, and because she adopted the third, she is not guilty of adding to the world's overpopulation.

JUST THINKING
DEAR JUST: Thanks for thinking of an angle I didn't think of.

Bad Weather Widespread

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow, rain, freezing drizzle and fog plagued a broad area from California to Kansas today as a series of storm systems drifted over the western half of the nation.

Travel advisories remained in effect over most of Kansas for freezing drizzle mixed with snow. Similar conditions ranged north into eastern Nebraska.

Heavy snow and locally gusty winds with blowing and drifting maintained travel advisories in the Sierra Nevadas of California. Expectations of heavy snow brought alerts for travelers in western Colorado and northern and western Utah.

Rain and snow showers chilled an area from Southern California through Utah into Colorado.

Showers diminished over northern and central California, but rain lingered across the Plateau and into parts of the northern and central Rockies.

Snow flurries dusted the Great Lakes and ranged into western New York and New England. Travel advisories warned of snow squalls off the eastern lakes.

Fair skies were scattered from Texas into the Southeast and north along the Eastern Seaboard.

Arctic cold clung to much of country from the northern Plains to New England. Subzero temperatures were the rule from the northern Great Lakes to the interior Northeast. Readings below freezing reached well into the South.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 8 at Limestone, Maine, to 72 at Key West, Fla.

Gorillas Will Get New Home

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — It won't be as good as the Congo, but for the Cincinnati's 12 lowland gorillas, their new home will be the best thing this side of the bush.

The Cincinnati Park Board Thursday awarded $868,352 worth of contracts for a modified rain forest grotto for the gorillas to be completed in about 18 months at the Cincinnati Zoo.

The major feature, zoo officials said, will be the elimination of cages.

Gorillas will roam a moat-protected area 119-by-260 feet with plenty of brush and rocks to escape the prying eyes of the public, which will be relegated to vantage points along a jungle-like trail.

The park board said original plans for a glass-enclosed building to house the "rain forest" were changed because of heating costs.

However, a spokesman said, gorillas are adaptable and there will be heated enclosures for the animals in colder weather.

The zoo claims a world record of eight gorilla births to its four adults. The grotto will be enclosed in a horticultural display and officials said there is no chance of the gorillas escaping.

Director Ed Maruska, now on a Central American safari, had said that the gorillas will now have a chance to participate in community life among themselves in the new enclosure.

At present, they are separated in cages at the Ape House at the second oldest zoo in the United States.

Gradison Fights Dam

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Rep. Willis D. Gradison Jr., who walked nearly all of Ohio's 1st District last November in his successful election campaign against incumbent Democrat Thomas A. Luken, is walking again.

Only this time he's on the move about 100 miles from home.

The freshman Republican congressman from Cincinnati has become the focal point in an effort to prevent a dam from being erected at the Red River Gorge in Kentucky.

Saturday, nearly 500 people are expected to gather at the site in an effort to focus attention on what plans have already been made and if they need to be changed.

Gradison became an active leader when he discovered there was no one else in Congress ready to take the job.

"There are a lot of people in Kentucky who staked out their positions before the facts were known," Gradison said. "There are some people who are on record as being for the dam, who might be able to get off the hook if citizens showed they were opposed to it."

Decline In Navy Worries Secretary

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Navy Secretary J. William Middendorf II said Thursday the Navy's declining shipbuilding program has become one of his greatest concerns.

"It is a disturbing fact that today the Soviet Navy has twice the number of major surface combatants and submarines as the U.S. Navy," Middendorf said.

He said that since 1968, the Navy has been building ships at the rate of only 12 a year.

By contrast, he pointed out, about 40 ships per year were being built between 1962 and 1967.

"Since 1968," the secretary said, "we have cut the size of the fleet in half. Our fleet of 501 ships is the smallest fleet since 1939—two years before Pearl Harbor."

Middendorf, a World War II naval officer, financial specialist and ex-U.S. ambassador to the Netherlands, spoke at a Navy League symposium on the Soviet sea challenge.

He said that while United States defense spending is going down, the Soviet Union has been pouring more money into arms.

Quoting Defense Secretary James Schlesinger, Middendorf said, "The USSR is estimated to be outspending the U.S. on defense by at least 20 per cent."

Court Releases Monthly Report

Carolyn Royster has released a report for the month of January for Circleville Municipal Court.

Total for fines, costs and bond forfeitures was $19,394.49 for January and a carry over of $2,099 from 1974 making a total of $21,493.49.

Of this amount Circleville will receive $8,412.69, and Pickaway County $7,316.40. Total due to the treasurer of the state is $3,282.30. Sheriff of Pickaway County will receive $260.10 with other disbursements totaling $218.

Criminal cases filed numbered 429 with 453 cases finished. The number of cases in which all or part of the fines and costs suspended was 13 while the amount of fines and costs suspended totalled $559.

Nineteen civil cases were filed with 11 cases concluded. Two marriages were performed with the total due to the city for civil cases and marriages $207.81.

The number of small claims filed was 66. Fifty-nine cases were finished leaving the amount due to the city at $259.75.

Chrysler Recalls 250 Workers

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The Chrysler Corp.'s Indianapolis foundry is recalling 250 furloughed workers Monday.

They were among 600 workers laid off Thanksgiving.

The foundry produces engine parts for other Chrysler plants, and plant manager Richard Gross said the recall was made "in order to supply engine plant requirements."

The recall will bring the total work force to 900 and enable the foundry to set up a reduced second shift operation.

"We have been operating one shift under the inventory reduction plan," Gross said. "Levels now are such we must start second shift operations."

Lutheran Denomination On Brink

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
The fuse is burning shorter in a major denomination of U.S. Lutherans and one segment of the Church last week readied a place to land when, and if, the blowup comes.
At the same time, it was reported that nearly all of the church's ministerial candidates who finished training at a rebel seminary now have been ordained or scheduled for it — against orders of the Church president.
The developments came in the controversy-racked Lutheran

Church-Missouri Synod, a Midwestern-based body which has congregations across the nation totaling 2.8 million members.<

The Red And Black Tours Of France, Italy Set

By LIBBY GOELLER

On March 27 a group of CHS Latin students will embark for Italy, and a group of French students will leave for France March 29.

The Latin students will board their plane for Rome in Philadelphia. The French students will fly from Port Columbus to JFK Airport in New York City, where they will leave for Paris.

The group to Italy will arrive in Rome on March 28 in the morning, and in the afternoon they will visit places such as St. Peter's Basilica and the Catacombs.

The following morning the students will again tour Rome, visiting the Colosseum, in particular. The next day they will tour the cities of Naples, Pompei, and Sorrento.

The fifth day marks the last in Rome, as they leave the following day for Florence. On the way to this city, they will stop in Assisi. While staying in Florence, the students will take field trips to Venice and Pisa.

On April 5 they will return to Rome to board their plane for the USA.

The French students will land in Paris on March 30, Easter Sunday. They hope to attend mass at Notre Dame. They will then become acquainted with the city.

The next day they will sightsee around Paris. On the fourth day they will visit the Palace of Versailles, and the fifth day will be spent touring the chateaux along the Loire River.

On the following day, the last in France's capital, features a "Paris by Night" excursion. The next day the

New Student Comes From Chillicothe

KEITH WILSON

By SUSAN SIMISON

Bowling, fishing and camping are some of the likes of new junior, Keith Wilson. He resides at 143 Lewis Ave., with his mother Mrs. Jean Carpenter.

"I think CHS is a neat school. It has a big gym and a nice auditorium. The teachers are nice also," commented Keith. He last attended Chillicothe High School.

Keith said he likes to sleep late on Saturdays and Sundays. He also enjoys going to his girlfriend's house. His main dislike is getting up for school Monday through Friday.

In his spare time he likes to wash and wax his car and go bowling on Monday nights. Keith also has a parttime job at DuPont.

Valuable Records Set In CHS Sports

By Tammy Davis

There are many members of the classes of '75, '76, '77 that have set valuable records for CHS sports.

For football, in 1974, Rick Sampill ran back the longest kick-off return of 88 yards. Phil Roll has had the most field goals in one season with his four in 1974. He also holds the longest field goal of 40 yards. Biff Bumgarner has the most yards gained in one game.

Jeff Spires had two 33's in the 1973 golf season. This year was the first year for the all-league team in golf. Three members of the CHS team were chosen Mark McFadden, Jeff Spires, and Jeff Bohenko.

The team also set another record for 148 strokes in nine holes in 1974.

There have been 11 records set in track. Frank Plescia has helped set nine of them. These records are high jump, 6' 3", Plescia in 1974; three-man shuttle hurdles, Jim Cordle, Herb Sturgell, and Plescia; 440 relay in 1973, Rick Sampill and Plescia; Alan Underwood and Plescia, two-man long jump of 38' 10 1/2"; Cordle, pole vault in 1973; Plescia and Underwood, three-man long jump of 54' 4"; triple jump of 41' 3/4"; Plescia; 330 low hurdles, Plescia; three-man jump, Plescia with 114' 3/4"; Doug Palm in two-mile relay in 1973; sprint medley, Warren Yamarick and Sampill.

Marietta Bids For Crown

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Marietta's Pioneers bid for the full Ohio Conference basketball championship Saturday while the Mid-American, Hoosier-Buckeye and Mid-Ohio races continue down to the wire.

Wittenberg was favored to win the Ohio Conference title, but the Tigers (9-3) need a Baldwin-Wallace home upset of Marietta (10-2) to have a chance at a co-championship.

Marietta earned a share of its first league title since 1955 Wednesday night, winning its 11th consecutive OC game over visiting Muskingum 55-46.

The Pioneers face an armload at Baldwin-Wallace, where the oft-beaten Yellow Jackets knocked Wittenberg from the lead a week ago 61-59.

Wittenberg winds up its OC campaign at third-place Denison (8-3) Saturday.

In other OC windups, Capital plays at Wooster, Mount Union at Heidelberg, Ohio Wesleyan at Oberlin, Kenyon at Otterbein and Muskingum at Ohio Northern.

The 14 OC members will conduct their tournament draw Sunday for the annual postseason event starting Friday, Feb. 21.

In the Mid-American, five of the eight teams have three or four losses, topped by Miami's 6-3 record. The Redskins face a big one Saturday at second-place Central Michigan (5-3).

Bowling Green, third at 6-4, plays at home against Kent State (2-7), Western Michigan (5-4) at Ohio University (4-5) in a regionally-televised game and Eastern Michigan (3-6) at Toledo (5-4).

Ohio State, 6-6 in the Big Ten, returns home to face Wisconsin, last in the conference with a 2-9 record. The Buckeyes won at Wisconsin eight games ago 89-67.

In independent major play, Cincinnati's Bearcats, 15-5, gun for their 10th straight triumph at George Washington, Dayton (9-11) entertains rugged South Carolina (14-6) while Xavier (9-10) draws visiting Northern Kentucky State.

In the Hoosier-Buckeye, 1973 champion Defiance (12-2) continues one-half game behind Hanover (12-1), last year's titleholder. Wilmington visits Hanover and Defiance goes to Anderson in the key games Saturday.

Malone and Rio Grande, the one-two teams in the Mid-Ohio, play conference games at home. Malone (6-1) faces Ohio Dominican (4-4) while Rio Grande (6-2) tests Urbana (2-5).

Two of Ohio's leading college division powers, Akron and Youngstown, are in action, too.

Akron (14-7) heads for Buffalo. Youngstown (17-4) tries to rebound from a 70-55 loss to Akron Wednesday night, staying home for Cleveland State (10-8).

for fourth place with 5-4 records, need triumphs to remain in contention.

The Broncos visit Ohio (4-5), in a regionally-televised game at 1 p.m. Toledo stays home to face Eastern Michigan (3-6).

In nonconference action, Ball State travels to Georgia Southern and Northern Illinois awaits Illinois State.

The next five days are vital to both Miami and Central Michigan.

After their clash Saturday, the prime contenders face road tests Wednesday. Miami is at Kent State and Central Michigan at Toledo.

The Miami-Central Michigan matchup will be a duel between a trio of Chippewa scorers and the balance of the Redskins.

Central Michigan has three of the top scorers in the conference, No. 2 Dan Roundfield (19.8 point average), No. 5 Jim Helmink (16.1) and No. 7 James McElroy (16.6).

All carry better averages than Miami's top scorer, Steve Fields, averaging 15.3 points.

Miami Goes After Central Michigan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Tempo, contends Miami of Ohio Coach Darrell Hedric, will play an important role in the Redskins' Mid-American basketball Game of the Week at Central Michigan Saturday.

The MAC lead will be at stake when the conference's one-two teams clash for the second time this season. Miami, now leading the league, won the first one from the Chippewas 102-76.

"Central Michigan likes to control the tempo of the game by what they do defensively," said Hedric. "They change their defense and try to throw you off balance."

If the Chippewas can avenge that loss, they will go into first place with a 6-3 conference mark. Miami would drop to 6-4.

Bowling Green, favored by the coaches to win the championship, can stay close if the Falcons (6-4) trim visiting Kent State (3-6). The Flames, although still in last place, have upset Ohio University and Toledo in their last three MAC assignments.

Adena Nips Westfall Girls On Last-Second Field Goal

A last-second desperation shot powered the Adena High School girls to a 20-18 win over Westfall Thursday night in the Mustang gym.

Adena gained possession of the ball in the closing seconds and finally attempted a long shot with two seconds remaining, according to Westfall Coach Linda Diltz.

The shot failed, but an Adena player picked up the rebound and threw in the winning points from beyond the foul line as the buzzer sounded.

"It was a hard loss for us," said Mrs. Diltz, whose only four losses in the last two seasons have been inflicted by Adena. The Mustangs are 5-2 this year.

Foul shooting problems and a miserable third quarter also led to the loss.

Adena held a 4-2 edge after the first period and a 10-7 edge at the half. But the Warriors scored six points in the third period while holding Westfall without a marker.

The Mustangs canned only four of 15 foul shots and connected on seven of 28 from the floor.

Cindy Schleich led Westfall with 11 points. Michele Conley scored three and Kim Finch and Karen Marshall hit for two each.

The Mustangs held Adena's Cindy Noble, a 6-3 center who dominated play in the first meeting of the schools, to just eight points. Ruth Ater, another good Warrior shooter, scored four.

"The girls played their hearts out," Mrs. Diltz said, "and never gave up."

Westfall will be trying to get back on the winning track Thursday when they travel to Circleville for a 5 p.m. contest with the Tigers.

Cindy Sparks Ties State Swim Mark

Cindy Sparks, a member of the Circleville Piranha Swim team who swims for the Chillicothe YMCA Marlin Swim Club during the winter months, has tied a Central Ohio YMCA Swim League record in the 11-12 year-old 50-yard butterfly.

The record-tying time of 31.3 seconds was produced by Cindy during the Class A YMCA meet Feb. 8 at Parkersburg, W. Va.

By winning the 50-yard butterfly event and tying the state mark, she qualified for the YMCA Class A sectional meet which is set for March in Cleveland.

Circleville Draws Vikings; LE Will Play Pickerington

Pickaway County's three Class AA high school cage teams went for the same four-team bracket in the Grove City Central District sectional basketball tournament in pairings Thursday night at the Jai Lai in Columbus.

Logan Elm will meet Mid-State League opponent Pickerington in the first game of the sectional upper bracket next Friday at 8 p.m. and Circleville will square off against Teays Valley in the other upper bracket tilt Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Columbus Fairgrounds Coliseum.

The winners of these two matches will battle Friday, Feb. 28, at 8 p.m. to determine which team will advance to the district tournament in the Fairgrounds Coliseum.

First game there will be Thursday, March 6, at 8:30 p.m. with the winner of the upper bracket at the Newark sectional.

Tickets will be sold beginning Tuesday morning at Teays Valley and Circleville High Schools for the key match of the sectional.

The game was originally slated to follow the Logan Elm - Pickerington clash Friday in the 2,500-seat Grove City gymnasium.

But officials from both schools met with Jim Weber, manager of the Grove City sectional, in an effort to make other arrangements for the expected large crowd that will be following the teams.

It was originally decided to run the sectional in two sessions, with Logan Elm and Pickerington starting at 6 p.m. and TV and Circleville at 9 p.m. to allow tournament officials to clear the gymnasium of first-game fans.

But Weber could promise only 500 tickets to each of the schools for their fans.

However, Benis Lutz, local superintendent of the Teays Valley School district, and Paul Sarchet, Circleville High School principal, met with members of the Central District Board to arrange for the game to be played in the coliseum, which seats 5,500 people.

The switch will allow both schools to reserve 1,500 seats for their fans, with more available if needed. A similar maneuver was used two years ago, according to officials, in an effort to be fair to fans who wanted to see the game.

Circleville, with its 17-0 season record, was given the top seed in the sectional and a poll of coaches gave the second seed to St. Charles with its 11-6 season mark.

Slots were reserved in the upper and lower bracket for the two seeded teams and the seven other challengers drew numbered pills to determine the order of their placing.

Columbus Bishop Hartley (10-6), with the number one pill, selected the lower bracket bye.

Logan Elm Coach Asa Bradbury had the second selection and he went for one of the two slots in the upper bracket that did not meet a seeded team in the opening match. The only other choice available was against the seeded team in the lower bracket or two openings in the lower bracket to determine which team would face Hartley. But that would have meant an extra game for his (10-6) Braves.

Pickerington (6-10) was next and elected to go opposite the Braves in the Upper Bracket.

Mifflin (9-8) stayed away from the two seeded openings and went for the extra game in the lower bracket. But Teays Valley Coach Bob Hoover moved his Vikings (11-6) to the upper bracket against one of the seeded squads.

Bexley (12-5) opted to play the seeded lower bracket team, and Hamilton Twp. was given the final slot against Mifflin in the extra game.

Circleville Coach John Lawhorn had the choice of placing his team opposite the Vikings in the upper bracket or opposite Bexley in the lower. The Tigers had beaten Teays Valley twice on the year and Bexley once.

But he chose to go against Teays Valley, giving St. Charles the lower bracket berth.

After brackets were filled in the four sectionals in the central district, the coaches gave Columbus Mohawk the top seed in the District, voting for Circleville as the number two club. Seeding in the district was for winners of the bracket sectionals of the teams, and not necessarily the teams.

The winner of the upper bracket at Grove City will play the winner of the Upper bracket at Newark Thursday, March 6, at 8:30 p.m. in the district tournament.

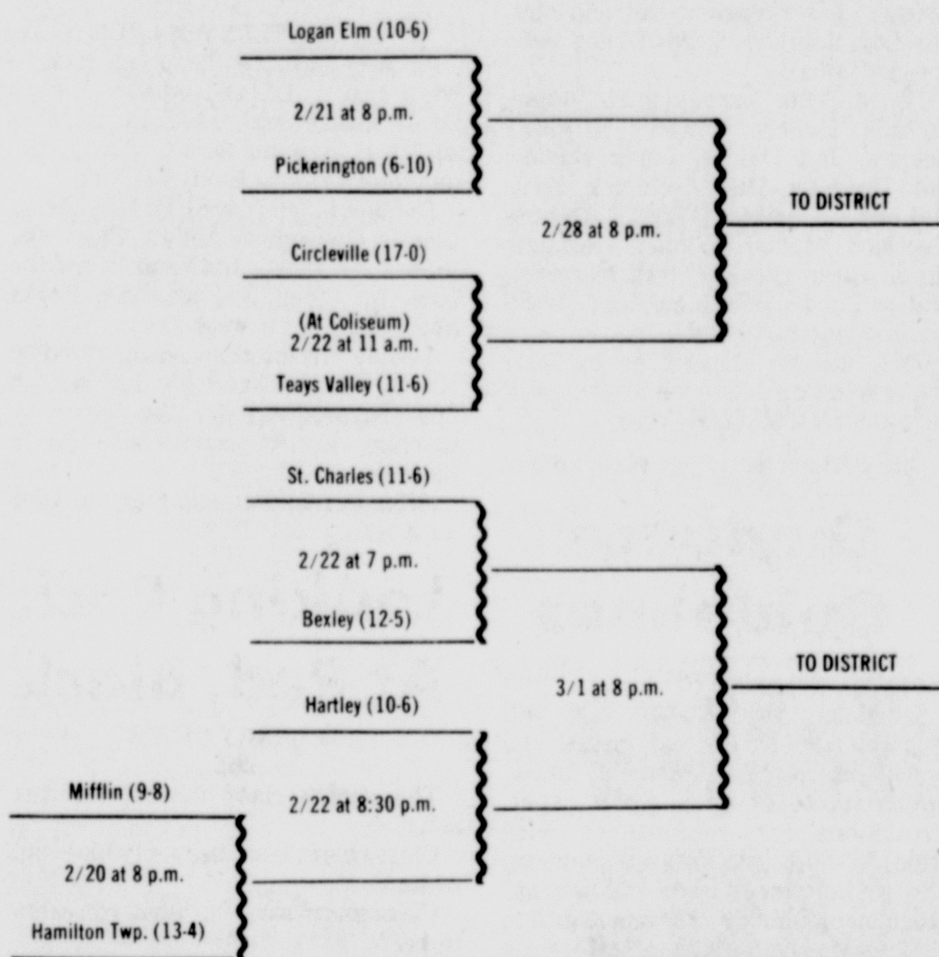

Teams in the upper bracket at Newark are Licking Valley (14-3), the second seed; Reemelin (5-3), Fairfield Union (9-8), and Utica (13-4).

Logan Elm, in its only meeting of the year with Pickerington, lost 74-70. The Braves have also been defeated by Teays Valley and Circleville, but they will get another shot at the Tigers Saturday.

In the two regular season meetings between the Vikings and Tigers, Circleville emerged as the winners twice.

Other sectional sites are Westland, Newark, and Marion. The top teams in the district appear to be in the Grove City sectional, however. The nine teams have won 99 games and lost only 51.

Tigers Try For 18th Saturday

Circleville will be shooting for a record 18-0 season Saturday night when the Tigers host Logan Elm in the final regular season game for Pickaway County schools.

It will be played in Circleville's Mill St. gymnasium with the reserve game scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m.

A total of 13 seniors, eight from Logan Elm and five from Circleville, will be playing their final regular season games in the contest.

Logan Elm seniors are Brian Barr, Derek Morris, Phil Manson, Mike Daubenmire, Matt Martin, Mitch Martin, Scott Pontius, and Neil Overman. Circleville seniors are Perry Hoskins, Harold "Willis" Reed, Phil Roll, Brad Spangler, and Bill Massie.

The two teams met Nov. 30 at the McDowell gym with the Tigers pulling out a hard-fought 67-56 win. Since that time, Circleville has emerged as the top Class AA team in the state according to a poll of Associated Press members and clinched the South Central Ohio League basketball title with a special award for breezing through the season with a perfect mark.

And Logan Elm clinched second place in the Mid-State League, faltering to Canal Winchester, the league winner and second-ranked team in the State in the Class A poll.

The Braves will be in action tonight when they host Lancaster Fisher in a contest that will decide if Logan Elm will share the second slot or win it outright.

Circleville's George Moore and the Tiger's balanced scoring and tight man-to-man defense paved the way to victory in the first meeting of the teams.

Moore scored 22 points on 11 of 14 shots from the floor and dominated the boards with 12 rebounds. He also anchored the Tiger defense that shut-off the middle for the Braves.

Mike McCoy, coming off the bench, and Biff Bumgarner scored 12 each for Circleville, and Hoskins and Reed hit for nine each. It was the only time this season that Hoskins fouled out of a game for the Tigers.

Scott Pontius paced the Braves with 19 points and Jeff Reichelderfer found the range for 12. But the remainder of the LE attack was blunted.

Circleville hit 27 of 47 shots in the game for 57 per cent, while the Braves canned 23 of 61 for 37 per cent.

It was a tight contest until the final period when Circleville erupted for 23 points and limited Logan Elm to 14.

The Braves built a 10-2 lead early in the first period before the Tigers climbed on top 16-14 at the quarter buzzer. And Circleville took an early five point lead in the second period that they held at the half, 30-25.

But Logan Elm fought back in the third period to take a 37-34 advantage with 4:08 remaining before Circleville forged ahead for a 44-40 lead entering the final quarter.

The Tigers are paced by co-captain Reed, the leading Pickaway County scorer with a 17-4 per game average. Moore is scoring 14.8 points a game, Hoskins is hitting for 12.1, and Biff Bumgarner is scoring at an 11.3 clip.

On the season, Logan Elm holds a slim lead over Circleville in offensive production, but the Tigers are allowing almost 11 points a game less than the Braves.

Reichelderfer has made his way to the top of the Brave scoring list with a 16.2 average. Pontius is scoring 14.8 points a game, Matt Martin is hitting for 10.8, and 6-6 Mike Miller is scoring 9.2 points.

Logan Elm will also be out to avenge a 35-33 loss at the hands of the Tiger reserves in the preliminary contest. It was only the second loss in 16 games for the Little Braves, who won the Mid-State title with a 12-1 record.

Circleville never was ahead in the first three periods, finally grabbing the lead with 2:19 remaining.

Frank Merrill paced the Tiger attack with 12 points.

The following team and individual statistics are based on all season games and should not be used for individual comparisons since each of the four schools in Pickaway County play in different leagues.

For example, the Mid-State League mean score is 70 points a game. The league sports one player averaging in excess of 30 points a game, three over 20, and 13 over 15 points.

The Scioto Valley Conference was by far the most defensive-minded league. Mean score was 57.7 points a game. Only one player averaged over 20 points a game and six eclipsed the 15 point mark.

The SCOL average was 62.2 points a game with one 20-point performer and five over 15.

The Metro mean is 60.6 with two individuals bettering the 20-point average and seven over 15.

Based on non-league games only, Circleville is averaging 71.2 points a game and allowing 57.8; Logan Elm is averaging 62 points a game and allowing 69.3; Westfall is averaging 66 points a game and allowing 62.5; and Teays Valley is averaging 59.2 while allowing 66.7.

Here are the individual and team statistics of high school basketball teams in Pickaway County:

Braves Beat Bruins; Win NHL Tilt 3-1

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

As Phil Esposito and Bobby Orr go, so go the Boston Bruins. Esposito and Orr didn't go very good Thursday night, so the Bruins went down to a 3-1 defeat at the hands of the Buffalo Braves.

Esposito, the National Hockey League's leading scorer with 52 goals and 53 points, was held to no goals, no assists and no shots. Orr picked up an assist on Boston's only goal and reached the 100-point mark for the sixth consecutive season, but the superstar defenseman, who has 33 goals, managed just two shots on the Buffalo net.

"When Esposito and Orr don't get shots, you know we're in trouble," said Coach Don Cherry.

Okay, Boston's in trouble. The second-place Bruins trail Buffalo by nine points in the Division 4 race.

"It will be very hard to catch Buffalo now," Cherry admitted.

Elsewhere, the Philadelphia Flyers ended a three-game skid by trimming the Chicago Black Hawks 4-1 and the Kansas City Scouts won a battle of lowly expansion teams from the Washington Capitals 5-1.

In the World Hockey Association, the San Diego Mariners whipped the Baltimore Blades 6-1 and the Quebec Nordiques outskated the Phoenix Roadrunners 5-3.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Effective action will win approval of associates. Intelligent discussion will help to crystallize next moves. Rational analysis of all issues important.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Where expedient, accelerate your pace, but where a slowing down is necessary, do not fight it and cause unrest. Emphasize poise and perseverance.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Step lightly, with measured gait. There may be a few delicate spots, perhaps a detour you can take. Don't chafe at roadblocks: take all with calmness and quiet deliberation.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): A change in rhythm, a different pace may be in the making. Take steps to contribute to an already eminent record. The "little" things could steal the show.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Present aspects suggest keen observance of conditions and situations before launching new projects. Make certain that you know what you are about.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): New and gradually changing influences, trends indicated. You won't like them all immediately, but many are better than they appear at a glance. Study everything carefully.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): Give your best, then await returns calmly. If crises arise, either within the family group or without, preserve equilibrium, perspective, humor.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Adopt a no-never-said-thought policy if you would net top rewards now. A good day in which to try out new ideas, methods.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Some will be pleased, some won't — with results of decisions, plans. Be careful to consider the opinions of all concerned in conclusions. Work for effectiveness.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Insure results by capitalizing upon your fine talents and energies, and keep your pace constant but not hectic. In all efforts, keep the future in mind.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Serious thoughts should be given to serious steps. Insufficient knowledge is no excuse for failure. Do not try to justify the flaws in your thinking. Eliminate them.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a superior intellect and outstanding artistry. Your personality is an outgoing one and you make friends easily; may lose them, however, through thoughtlessness and an excessive volubility which tires others. Watch this! Your talents are many, and you could succeed as a journalist, inventor, artist, statesman, scientist or engineer — depending on your education and leanings, of course. Birthdate of: Galileo, renowned astronomer, physicist.

Bobby Allison Eyes Speed Weeks Win

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — It's one down and four to go for Bobby Allison in his quest for five victories and nearly $100,000 in prize money in the weekend windup to Speed Weeks at Daytona International Speedway.

"I'm running all these races for prestige and prize money," said Allison Thursday after winning one of a pair of 125-mile heats building up to the $287,375 Daytona 500 on Sunday.

But he complained there wasn't much of either in that race.

"It pays next to nothin and it doesn't even count as a win for us in the NASCAR standings," Allison said. "We had to run it to get a good spot for Sunday."

He will start his Matador in third place in the Daytona 500, just behind his brother Donnie Allison in a Chevrolet and David Pearson in a Mercury.

The front two were guaranteed their positions when they posted the fastest qualifying times last Sunday. They also started at the front of the 125-mile heats.

Donnie Allison dropped out after only nine laps of the 2.5-mile high banked track. He said he developed an oil leak.

Pearson went on to win the other 125-mile, sweeping past Richard Petty's Dodge on the final lap. It was reminiscent of last summer's Firecracker 400, when Pearson shut off Petty and nosed him at the finish.

But Petty has had the last laugh in the richest stock car race, the Daytona 500. He has won it five times, Pearson none. Petty will start in fourth place Sunday.

Allison nipped Richard Brooks' Ford by 1.6 seconds in the first heat. Allison and Pearson each collected $1,500 for their victories. Allison went after $30,000 first prize in the finale of the $200,000 International Race of Champions as well as $7,400 first money in a 200-mile for modified stock cars on today's program. He started fourth in each.

In his own Chevrolet, Bobby Allison will go from the front row in the 300-mile for late model sportsman stock cars Saturday. That one pays $8,900 to the winner.

Jack Ingram, 1974 sportsman champion from Asheville, N.C., has the pole. He qualified his Chevrolet at 177.137 miles an hour compared to Allison's 176.827.

Joe Millikan of Randleman, N.C., who has branched out from a job as engine room worker for Petty into the driving ranks at the age of 24, starts in third place with a Dodge. Beside him in the second row will be Bill Dennis, of Glen Allen, Va., in a Mercury.

Cavaliers Top Warriors; Win 96-93

By The Associated Press
Bill Fitch says he knows the best way to keep Golden State's Rick Barry from wrecking the rest of the National Basketball Association.

"The way you have to play Barry is to run him at both ends of the court," Cleveland's coach said after his Cavaliers overhauled the Warriors 96-93 in Thursday night's only NBA game.

But there's an even better way. Keep him on the bench. That's where Barry was for most of the fourth period, when the Cavs shot into the lead and pulled away for the victory.

In the American Basketball Association, Indiana nipped Virginia 107-105, Memphis beat St. Louis 120-114 and Denver downed Utah 116-112.

Barry's late-game absence — due to a slight ankle injury — wasn't the only thing that hurt Golden State. Bad shooting and ball-handling contributed to the downfall.

"We just ran into a very cold spot at the end of the third quarter and it carried over into the fourth," said Warriors' Coach Al Attles, referring to a 6 1/2-minute stretch when the Cavaliers outscored Golden State 19-2. "We turned the ball over four or five times there and they made the shots and put us right out of it."

Jim Clemons led Cleveland with 23 points. Barry and Keith Wilkes had 20 for the Warriors.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — Times do change. Gov. George Wallace, whose 1963 battlecry was "segregation ... segregation tomorrow ... segregation forever," is being interviewed on public TV tonight by an all-black panel.

He'll field questions from four newsmen in "Black Perspective on the News," a half-hour series produced by station WHYY-TV in Philadelphia. The interview was taped Feb. 6 in Montgomery, Ala.

The Alabama governor was asked to appear on the show as part of its increased effort to "cover as many views that are prominent in national news as we can," says Reginald Bryant, the series' moderator.

Rhodes More Accessible

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Statehouse newsmen have framed behind glass the announcement of Gov. James A. Rhodes' first news conference Jan. 31, 18 days after he took office, celebrating the change from his first two terms, 1963-1971.

Back in those days, Rhodes seldom gave a news conference and managed to be inaccessible many times when reporters needed to find him.

The number of newsmen covering gubernatorial news conferences doubled or tripled after Rhodes left office in 1971 and the next governor, John J. Gilligan, installed an acoustical news conference room in the Statehouse basement.

In previous terms Rhodes held such meetings only when accompanied by cabinet members, and even then more for the purpose of making an announcement than to field questions.

This time the 65-year-old governor held forth on his own and seemed to enjoy it. At any rate, he called another conference for six days later, although saying beforehand it was to "announce one of my programs."

Rhodes is being advised on press matters this time by Chan Cochran, formerly a political writer for The Columbus Dispatch and a respected colleague for several years in the

Judge Says Funds Must Be Released

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge says the White House has no power to withhold highway money appropriated by Congress and the government must release road funds sought by 12 states.

The ruling was the result of a suit filed by 12 states contesting the right of the President to impound highway funds.

The decision was issued by U.S. District Judge John Lewis Smith Jr. Wednesday, one day after President Ford ordered the release of $2 billion in impounded highway funds in an effort to stimulate road construction jobs. Since 1966 the White House has impounded more than $11 billion in highway money appropriated by Congress.

Officials for the 12 states estimated that the Federal Highway Administration refuses to spend $616 million through June 30, 1975, plus another $1.5 billion in fiscal year 1976.

Smith ordered the highway administration to determine the actual share owed the 12 states and to pay it.

States involved in the suit were Pennsylvania, Alaska, Arizona, Idaho, Louisiana, Michigan, Nevada, Oklahoma, Texas, Utah, Washington and Wisconsin.

Smith's ruling said eight other federal judges already have denied the government a right to withhold funds for programs approved by Congress.

Statehouse press corps.

Rep. Gene Damschroder, R-85 Fremont, who received national publicity in late 1973 after he proposed to sterilize welfare parents, has offered legislation that figures to be a bit less controversial.

He offered a bill to lower the price of fishing licenses for out-of-state residents who may be visiting Ohio "just one day or the only nice day of the week."

The 53-year-old airport operator bypassed the secretarial pool and a formal press release on his bill. Instead, he delivered a hand-written endorsement to newsmen that urged the bill's passage and at the close "Go Fishing."

Sen. Anthony O. Calabrese, D-22 Cleveland, long-time advocate of better treatment for the elderly and mentally ill with a number of such laws to his credit on Ohio's statute books, wants closer inspection of the state's nursing homes.

Calabrese, a member of the Ohio Improvements and Inspections Committee, is proposing a statewide tour by that panel so lawmakers can see for themselves the conditions that exist in nursing homes.

The Senate Rules Committee is studying the cost of such a trip.

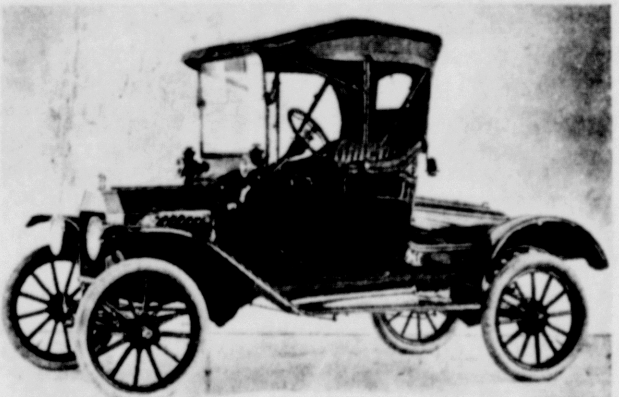

The Senate has gone back to its old policy of meeting on Monday nights and it is irking several members.

The $17,500-a-year lawmakers complain that it costs them at least $30 a week for the extra night in Columbus. The legislators get mileage for one trip to and from Columbus each week the legislature is in session, but they get no expenses for lodging and meals.

"We don't accomplish anything on Monday night that we couldn't do on Tuesday," said one southern Ohio Democrat.

The House is sticking to a Tuesday through Thursday agenda.

waiting list for learning disabilities classes but she explained to the board that these children are presently receiving special tutoring and are therefore not being neglected.

She also explained that the Kiwanis Club has chosen learning disabilities for its emphasis this year. She and Donald Metzler, elementary supervisor, spoke to the group and the Kiwanis have agreed to help with the program in the schools.

In regular business before the board, one resignation was accepted and several persons were approved for substitute positions. Mrs. Carol Agler, junior high music teacher, submitted her resignation because of pregnancy. Her resignation was accepted effective April 15.

Jack A. Lewis and Ronald E. Davis were approved as substitute custodians. Lewis and Malcolm Wilkins were approved as substitute bus drivers when they qualify by license and physical examination.

Daniel Campbell was given a supplemental contract as tennis coach for this spring. He was given $200 for the extra-curricular activity. Jacobs advised the board that if enough interest was shown, a girls' tennis team may be organized this fall.

Three students were approved for tutoring and two for home instruction.

A resolution was then passed authorizing payment from the Athletic Fund to coaches, teachers, parents, authorized adults or students for the cost of gasoline when it is necessary to transport participants to athletic contests.

Jacobs advised the board that no board responsibility for liability in connection with this transportation would be assumed. The responsibility rests solely with the person to whom the payment is made. It was also stipulated that the athletic director or the principal must approve the transportation and that this method would only be used when school bus transportation cannot be arranged.

As part of procedure, the board authorized the kindergarten registration date of April 16.

Other routine business before the board included an internal transfer of $2.63 and approval of new Blue Cross, Blue Shield rates. The rate change is effective March 1, 1975 through March 1, 1976. It includes a raise in the single rate from $10.70 to $11.81 and the family rate from $29.89 to $43.06 for both the Blue Cross and Blue Shield protection.

In final action, the board approved attendance to the following professional meetings: Jerri Rapp and Janet Martin to a mathematics meeting in Canton on March 20-22; Patricia Southward to a psychologists meeting in Columbus on Feb. 7; Lynn Owings to a language therapy conference in Dayton on Feb. 14 and 15; Paula Woodward and Carol Mader to accompany students to the 1975 National French Contest in Athens on March 15. These last two persons are to be reimbursed for mileage only.

Board members present were Dale DeLong, Shirley Wylie, Dr. Liggett, and Thomas Elsea. Forrest Brown was out of town on business.

The board meets the second Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. for regular monthly meetings.

Big State Job Shifts Reported

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The director of the Ohio Department of Administrative Services says about three times the usual number of state employees changed jobs the last two months of 1974.

Director Richard Krabach said a computer analysis showed about 15,000 state employees changed jobs in November and December, the two months immediately before Gov. James A. Rhodes took office.

Normally, he said, about 5,000 employees might be expected to change jobs in a 60-day period.

Many of the changes involved "people taking care of themselves," some were political changes and "maybe 100 were done at the direction of the outgoing governor," John J. Gilligan, Krabach said.

"It seems unusual—that's the kindest word I can think of—to have so many changes in that period of time," Krabach said.

He said many of those changing jobs were persons shifting from unclassified to classified positions. Department heads must show cause before they can fire a classified civil service employee.

"That's not illegal," he said. "They can do that (shift jobs) under personnel rules."

Picketing Confined

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Union picketing was expected to be confined to Lebanon City Hall today after three demonstrators were charged with disorderly conduct Thursday.

The three men were arrested, according to police, for "harassing" a city electrical crew on the job. Arrested were Syma Funt, 24, Rudolph Conrad, 27, and Robert Hauck, 32, all of Cincinnati.

A court injunction Wednesday ordered an end to secondary picketing of the town's business district and harassment of city employees and shoppers.

Mass picketing by the AFL-CIO and International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers began in mid-January in support of 18 city employees who were fired for striking.

The strikers were fired for defying a court order to return to work. The workers walked out Nov. 21 when the city refused to recognize the IBEW as their bargaining agent, the union said.

IBEW and AFL-CIO officials said they were picketing as a boycott against Lebanon in support of the fired workers at the power plant and water works.
